Advisory Committee Comment

The purpose of this rule is to ensure that all court-appointed temporary judges have proper training in bench conduct and demeanor, ethics, and each substantive area in which they adjudicate cases. Each court is responsible for approving the training and instructional materials for the temporary judges appointed by that court. The training in bench conduct and demeanor must be in person instructor-led (live remote or in-person), but in other areas each court may determine the approved method or methods by which the training is provided. The methods may include in person courses, broadcasts with participation, and online courses. Courts may offer Minimum Continuing Legal Education (MCLE) credit for courses that they provide and may approve MCLE courses provided by others as satisfying the substantive training requirements under this rule. Courts may work together with other courts, or may cooperate on a regional basis, to develop and provide training programs for court-appointed temporary judges under this rule.

Rule 2.815. Continuing education

(a) Continuing education required

Every three years, each attorney appointed as a temporary judge must attend and successfully complete every three years a course on bench conduct and demeanor, an ethics course, and a course in each substantive area in which the attorney will serve as a temporary judge. The courses must cover the same subjects and be of the same duration as the courses prescribed in rule 2.812(c). These courses must be approved by the court that appoints the attorney in which the attorney will serve.

1 2 3 Rule 5.250. Children's participation and testimony in family court proceedings 4 5 (a) Children's participation Authority and overview 6 7 This rule is intended to implement Family Code section 3042. Children's 8 participation in family law matters must be considered on a case-by-case basis. No 9 statutory mandate, rule, or practice requires children to participate in court or 10 prohibits them from doing so. When a child wishes to participate, the court should 11 find a balance between protecting the child, the statutory duty to consider the 12 wishes of and input from the child, and the probative value of the child's input 13 while ensuring all parties' due process rights to challenge evidence relied upon by 14 the court in making custody decisions. 15 16 Subd (a) amended effective January 1, 2023.) 17 18 Children's participation (b) 19 20 When a child wishes to participate in a court proceeding involving child custody 21 and visitation (parenting time): 22 23 The court should find a balance between protecting the child, the statutory (1) 24 duty to consider the wishes of and input from the child, and the probative 25 value of the child's input while ensuring all parties' due process rights to be aware of and to challenge evidence relied on by the court in making custody 26 27 decisions. 28 29 (2) The court must: 30 31 (A) Consider a child's participation in family law matters on a case-by-case 32 basis; and 33 34 Not permit a child addressing the court about child custody or visitation (B) 35 (parenting time) to do so in the presence of the parties. (b) Purpose

This rule addresses situations in which information is presented to the court about firearms and provides the court with options for appropriately addressing the issue. This rule is intended to:

(1) Assist courts issuing domestic violence protective orders in determining whether a restrained person has a firearm in or subject to his or her immediate possession or control.

(2) Assist courts that have issued domestic violence protective orders in determining whether a restrained person has complied with the court's order to relinquish, store, or sell the firearm under Family Code section 6389(c).

(c) Firearm determination

When relevant information is presented to the court at any noticed hearing that a restrained person has a firearm, the court must consider that information to determine, by a preponderance of the evidence, whether the person subject to a protective order as defined in Family Code section 6218 or Welfare and Institutions Code section 213.5 has a firearm in or subject to his or her immediate possession or control in violation of Family Code section 6389.

(d) Determination procedures

(1) In making a determination under this rule, the court may consider whether the restrained person filed a firearm relinquishment, storage, or sales receipt or if an exemption from the firearm prohibition was granted under Family Code section 6389(h).

(2) The court may make the determination at any noticed hearing when a domestic violence protective order is issued, at a subsequent review hearing, or at any subsequent family or juvenile law hearing while the order remains in effect.

(3) If the court makes a determination that the restrained person has a firearm in violation of Family Code section 6389, the court must make a written record of the determination and provide a copy to any party who is present at the hearing and, upon request, to any party not present at the hearing.

(e) Subsequent review hearing

1 (1) When presented with information under (c), the court may set a review 2 hearing to determine whether a violation of Family Code section 6389 has 3 taken place. 4 5 (2) The review hearing must be held within 10 court days after the noticed hearing at which the information was presented. If the restrained person is not 6 7 present when the court sets the review hearing, the protected person must 8 provide notice of the review hearing to the restrained person at least 2 court 9 days before the review hearing, in accordance with Code of Civil Procedure 10 414.10, by personal service or by mail to the restrained person's last known 11 address. 12 13 (3) The court may for good cause extend the date of the review hearing for a 14 reasonable period or remove it from the calendar. 15 16 (4) The court must order the restrained person to appear at the review hearing. 17 18 The court may conduct the review hearing in the absence of the protected 19 person. 20 21 (6) Nothing in this rule prohibits the court from permitting a party to appear by 22 telephone under California Rules of Court, rule 5.9. 23 24 (f) Child custody and visitation 25 26 If the court determines that the restrained person has a firearm in violation of 27 Family Code section 6389, the court must consider that determination when 28 deciding whether the restrained person has overcome the presumption in 29 Family Code section 3044. 30 31 (2) An order for custody or visitation issued at any time during a family law 32 matter must be made in a manner that ensures the health, safety, and welfare 33 of the child and the safety of all family members, as specified in Family Code 34 section 3020. The court must consider whether the best interest of the child, based on the circumstances of the case, requires that any visitation or custody 35 36 arrangement be limited to situations in which a third person, specified by the 37 court, is present, or that visitation or custody be suspended or denied, as 38 specified in Family Code section 6323(d). 39 40 (3) An order for visitation issued at any time during a juvenile court matter must 41 not jeopardize the safety of the child, as specified in Welfare and Institutions

Code section 362.1.

1 (g) Other orders 2 3 (1) The court may consider a determination that the restrained person has a 4 firearm in violation of Family Code section 6389 in issuing: 5 6 (A) An order to show cause for contempt under section 1209(a)(5) of the 7 Code of Civil Procedure for failure to comply with the court's order to 8 surrender or sell a firearm; or 9 10 (B) An order for money sanctions under section 177.5 of the Code of Civil 11 Procedure. 12 (2) This rule should not be construed to limit the court's power to issue orders it 13 14 is otherwise authorized or required to issue. 15 16 Rule 5.495 repealed effective January 1, 2023; adopted effective July 1, 2014. 17 18 Advisory Committee Comment 19 20 When issuing a family or juvenile law domestic violence protective order as defined in Family 21 Code section 6218 or Welfare and Institutions Code section 213.5, ex parte or after a noticed 22 hearing, the court is required to order a restrained person "to relinquish any firearm in [that 23 person's] immediate possession or control or subject to [that person's] immediate possession or control." (Fam. Code, § 6389(c)(1).) Several mandatory Judicial Council forms Temporary 24 25 Restraining Order (form DV-110), Restraining Order After Hearing (form DV-130), and Notice of Hearing and Temporary Restraining Order Juvenile (form JV-250) include mandatory 26 orders in bold type that the restrained person must sell to or store with a licensed gun dealer or 27 28 turn in to a law enforcement agency any guns or other firearms within his or her immediate 29 possession or control within 24 hours after service of the order and must file a receipt with the 30 court showing compliance with the order within 48 hours of receiving the order. California law 31 requires personal service of the request for and any temporary protective order at least five days 32 before the hearing, unless the court issues an order shortening time for service. Therefore, by the 33 date of the hearing, the restrained person should have relinquished, stored, or sold his or her 34 firearms and submitted a receipt to the court. 35 36 Courts are encouraged to develop local procedures to calendar firearm relinquishment review 37 hearings for restrained persons. 38 39 Section (f) of this rule restates existing law on the safety and welfare of children and family 40 members and recognizes the safety issues associated with the presence of prohibited firearms. 41 42

Although this rule does not require the court to compel a restrained person to testify, the court may wish to advise a party of his or her privilege against self-incrimination under the Fifth

1 Amendment to the United States Constitution. The court may also consider whether to grant use 2 immunity under Family Code section 6389(d). 3 4 Rule 5.618. - (B) For all other justices, the first continuing education period cycle begins January 1, 2008.
- (C) The first continuing education period cycle for Supreme Court and Court of Appeal justices is for two years from January 1, 2008, through December 31, 2009, rather than three years. The continuing education requirements and limitations in (c) are consequently prorated for this two-year period education cycle. The first three-year period education cycle then begins January 1, 2010.
- (2) The following education applies toward the required 30 hours of continuing judicial education:
 - (A) Any education offered by an approved provider (see under rule 10.481(a)) and any other education, including education taken to satisfy a statutory or other education requirement, approved by the Chief Justice or the administrative presiding justice as meeting the criteria listed in rule 10.481(b).

There is no restriction on the number or percentage of hours that a justice may claim as faculty service. Credit for faculty service counts toward the continuing education requirement on an hour-for-hour basis in the same manner as all other types of education—on an hour-for-hour basis.
