| CASE NAME: In re Kelly Kid | CASE NUMBER: JV17-0001 |
|----------------------------|---------------------------|

I REQUEST THAT THE COURT MAKE THE FOLLOWING FINDINGS:

6. The child has been (check all that apply):

- declared a dependent of the court committed to the custody of (name of state agency or department):
 placed in or under the custody of (name of individual or entity, unless confidential):

by virtue of the court order referred to above in item 4.

7. Reunification of the child with (name(s)): John Kid

- mother father other legal parent is not viable under California law because of (check all that apply):
 abuse neglect abandonment
 another legal basis (specify):

Facts supporting this finding, including any order listed in item 5 (specify):

Kelly cannot reunify with her father, John Kid, due to abandonment. Under the California Welfare and Institutions Code, abandonment occurs when a "a child has been left without any provision for support." See Cal. Welf. & Inst. Code § 300(g).

Kelly's father abandoned her under California law given that he left Kelly when she was just three years old and since then, he has failed to visit, contact, or support her with any material, emotional, or financial resources. This behavior constitutes leaving Kelly without provision for reasonable and necessary care, supervision, or support and is abandonment under section 300(g) of the California Welfare and Institutions Code.

8. It is not in the best interest of the child to be returned to the child's or parent's country of nationality or country of last habitual residence (specify country or countries): El Salvador

Facts supporting this finding (specify):

Pursuant to section 155(a) of the California Code of Civil Procedure and section 3011(a) of the California Family Code, it is not in Kelly's best interest to return to El Salvador because Kelly's health, safety, and welfare will be jeopardized in El Salvador. In El Salvador, Kelly's father abandoned her and she also faced harm from gang members, one of whom threatened to kill her. Kelly had to leave school as a result of the threats and was working. If returned to El Salvador, Kelly has no one able or willing to provide adequate care or protection and she faces renewed violence from gangs. It is in Kelly's best interest to remain in the United States where she is safe, well-cared for [by her mother/in her foster home], attending school, and receiving the support she needs to recover from the trauma she has endured.
