How to Support Court-Involved Youth

- ✓ Listen to lived experience experts and advocates- Ensure that your decision-making is informed by their expertise and input.
- ✓ Consider the “why”- Most, if not all, systems- involved youth have experienced traumatic events that impact how they respond to events. Provide space and grace for young people.
- ✓ Consider the words you use- Ensure you use language that is accessible to youth and consider the impact of the words and labels you use on young people. Avoid re-traumatizing language.
- ✓ Consider the difference between access to care versus access to needed and appropriate care- Treat youth as individuals with unique needs and strengths.
- ✓ Check your biases- Consider how existing institutional and personal prejudices affect your behavior and treatment of young people.
- ✓ Provide alternatives- Mental health care comes in many different forms. Ensure the options offered are not punitive in nature.
