All program funding flows through DCSS Program is 2/3 federal Title IV-D funds & 1/3 state DCSS contracts with the JCC to provide child support court services. JCC then contracts with each court What do the courts and the JCC have to do to keep this funding? • Keep accurate records including having each person who works on the child support program keep accurate time records.

Requirement for Documenting Time Traditional Method Purpose is to make sure that grant funding is going to pay for grant-related activities Timesheet must reflect ALL time worked by staff, whether or not the time is spent on the IV-D program This is known as "100% positive reporting" and is required by federal regulations

Alternative Timekeeping Methodology Rolling Time Study On an annual basis courts will have the option to use: Traditional timekeeping method (100% positive reporting), or Rolling Time Studies With Rolling Time Studies AB1058 court staff will: Track all time working during the one week reporting period Using the specific RTS timesheets (one for CSC program and one for FLF program) Reporting period will be 4 weeks per quarter Data will be extrapolated for the entire quarter to calculate how much time can be billed to the grant
